Tartars to Try Beverly Hills, South Gets Bye

The once-beaten Tartars, minus the services of half-back Joe Montgomery, will take on Beverly Hills on the Normans' field tomorrow afternoon in an effort to get their victory train back on the track.

A shoulder separation, suffered earlier this year and re-injured last Friday night in the hard-fought game against South High will sideline Montgomery tomorrow — and probably for the season.

Quarterback Howard Taylor, who caught an elbow in the eye during the crosstown game last week, was back out for practice Monday, but still sported a bloodshot eye.

Big Stan Gonta, 215-pound lineman, has been suffering from a hip injury and may still be on the sidelines, according to Coach Irwin Kasten.

The Beverly Hills Normans have a 1-2 record, tying a 19-14 decision on Lennox last Friday. The Tartars beat Lennox 33-0, by way of comparison scores.

South High's Spartans, who beat the Tartars last Friday 27-14, get a rest this week. They lead the Pioneer League with three wins. They will come back to the fray Nov. 6 playing Beverly Hills here.

Torrance hunters have begun to return from Utah safe but disappointed. The weather was dry there and most of the deer were does or just small bucks.

A large group of local sportsmen covered most areas of the Utah mountains. Lloyd Fullerton so far holds top position among the hunters. He not only took his deer limit but successfully tangled with three bob cats.

William Walker connected with a nice two-pointer at Taylor Flats. Carl Styles took a four-pointer out of Beaver, Utah. He said hunting this year was rough there and that he saw only a few bucks.

Jack Lund, Charles Rippey, and Clyde Bottrell all took deer, with Charles bringing in the largest, a three-pointer.

Dr. R. A. Bingham and Bob Moffit connected with nice bucks at Enterprize, Utah.

Fred and Gladys Kimberely had a good hunt with the other Torrance hunters.

Lts. Swayne Johnson and Alex "Porky" Thompson of the Torrance Police Department got two good bucks out of Colorado.

James Sibert bagged a large five-pointer at Tehachapi last week end. It dressed out to 195 pounds.

Eight store managers and three district managers made the trip, seven of whom had never seen a yellowtail and four of these had never before gone deep sea fishing.

Nevertheless, the group took in 93 yellowtail up to 21 pounds, 16 bonitas to 12½ pounds.

Stan Sellers took second place last Sunday in the Venice Perch Derby with a 2 pound 13-ounce perch. He won a power edger and a trophy.

Sam Cetraro of Compton is probably the luckiest hunter of all this year. He engaged in hand-to-hand combat with a large brown bear last week and came out victor.

Sam was deer hunting at Doyle, Calif., when he ran into this bear, estimated at about 300 pounds. Unfortunately, he had only one round of ammunition for his 300-caliber savage left. He sighted in on the bear at about 200 yards and dropped it with a shoulder shot.

When Sam and his dog went down to get a closer look at the bear it jumped up and attacked Sam and his dog. Sam parried a great sweeping strike of the bear's uninjured paw with his rifle. The blow was so great it broke Sam's rifle at the small of the stock.

However, Sam pulled a deer knife and killed the bear with several stab wounds in the throat.

This is not recommended procedure for the proper dispatching of bears.

Saxons in 20-14 Win, Vow to Repeat Friday

Coach Bob Shoup's North High Saxons, beaten in their first two Bay League outings by two top-rated teams of the league, roared back with blood in their eye Saturday night to knock over Leuzinger 20-14 as a warmup for what they hope will be another win against previously unbeaten Hawthorne Friday night.

Losing their opening tilts to Morningside and Santa Monica, the Saxons feel they have the breaks of the schedule if they can get by Hawthorne here tomorrow night. The game will be played at El Camino's Murdock Stadium beginning at 8.

Hopes for an upset against the strong Hawthorne team is being placed on the Saxons' strong defense — a defense that might stop Hawthorne's running game which has been billing up points against other Bay League teams this fall.

North's star lineman, Bob Hyatt, will probably be out of the game with a knee injury suffered late in last week's game.

Corsairs Try For 17th Win Falter

The string of victories spliced together by the Santa Monica City College Corsairs—including a Junior Rose Bowl title—was snapped abruptly at 16 here Saturday night as the El Camino College Warriors overcame a first quarter deficit to trounce the Corsairs, 28-12.

For El Camino it was a sweet victory, keeping them in contention for Metropolitan Conference honors, and beating the one team in the loop which had the best chance to keep them from it.

El Camino wound up in a four-way tie for second place with Santa Monica, Long Beach, and Valley after Saturday's upset win.

BAKERSFIELD still leads the pack with a 3-0 record, adding the third one over the week end at the expense of Long Beach City College.

Trailing the pack is Harbor, which will visit El Camino Saturday night, and East L.A. Both Harbor and ELA have 0-3 records.

Santa Monica's 16-game winning streak was the longest in Metropolitan Conference history.

SATURDAY night's upset was aided by the fleet running of halfback Gene Williams and air-tight pass defense thrown up by Coach Norm Verry's Warriors. Williams scored on an 11-yard run and a four-yard run in the first half to put the Warriors in front 12-6 at the intermission.

A Santa Monica plunge evened it up early in the third quarter, but Fullback Glen Kezar plunged over a few minutes later to put the Warriors ahead 20-12, and they added an insurance shot in the fourth quarter for the 28-12 victory.

SPARKING the Warrior offense was the sharp signal calling of Dave Long which kept the Santa Monica defense off balance most of the evening.

Long's passes to Ron Goodrich moved the Warriors down to one of their important touchdowns, and a recovered fumble by Long on the Santa Monica 19 set up the insurance score in the final quarter. Long passed to Blanch for the score.

THE WARRIOR'S second score came when Long intercepted a Corsair pass and ran it back 17 yards to the Santa Monica 26. Throughout the evening, Long passed 21 times, completed 11 for 105 yards and a touchdown.

Saturday night's contest between the Warriors and the Harbor Tech squad will begin at 8 in Murdock Stadium.

El Camino holds a 6-3 edge over the Harbor squad in the series and beat them 41-0 last year.

Valley squeezed by Harbor last week 20-14 in a bitterly-fought contest.
